Correspondence In:

- Fundraising for engraved Bricks/Pavers as an idea for the new build? –
- This idea might be a possibility towards the end of the school build. Looking at the front entrance where there has been damage to the current walkway. This idea can be addressed in future meetings.
- Tina Aspey has sent in a request to look at birthday buckets. Further information to come.
- See notes below as this comes under canteen report
- P&C volunteer of the year nomination for Amanda Thomas. With such a large number of entrants sadly Amanda's nomination was unsuccessful. We would however like to take the time to acknowledge how amazing Amanda is and we greatly appreciate all that you do.

Correspondence Out:

Application sent to Maitland Council regarding grants for the year.

- We are still awaiting a response and updates will be coming soon

Business arising from previous meeting/s:

None

Treasurers Report:

- Financials are in the black which is an excellent result. With $75000 in the bank, after expenses we have $65000.
- At the moment the uniform shop is our only source of income.

Principles Report: - Full report available upon request, please see below for highlights.

- Welcome back to school for 2021, we have had a very settled return.
- A mention of teachers who have left and a big thankyou to them.
- Welcome to our new Deputy Principle Sharon Moon
- Farewell and Thankyou to Sue Holt.
